

8) What supplies do I need to bring to my first day of school?

Teachers have differing materials requirements and usually inform students of these on the first day of school. On the first day, students should bring a notebook and pencil or pen to take notes in their classes, but wait on the purchase of additional materials until requirements are made clear by instructors.